BREED THEATRE.

Meroes, One and All, Maryelous Two-Reel Fire Picture.

There is shown at the Breed today one of the finest fire pictures that has ever been seen in this city. It is entitled Heroes, One and All, and is produced by the great Lubin company, which is famous for its marvelous attention to detail. A young business man in his city office is attacked by a burglar and in the scuffle the phone is disconnected and his sweetheart, a telephone operator at the central sta-tion, learns of the trouble. She quickly phones two other admirers, a police officer and a fireman, who in turn ring in the whole fire department when they discover the office building to be on fire. Then follows the wonderful rescues from the fiercely burning building, and the reward of the girl's band to the hero appealing most to Pathe Weekly No. 21 is unusually beautiful and interesting today, and The Haunted House by the Kalem company is another thriller. Two exeruciatingly funny Biograph comedies keep the house in uproars and prove highly pleasing.

AT THE AUDITORIUM. Everything New Today.

The patrons of the Auditorium the first part of the week all remarked great strides. Many people who did not care for these wonderful films the first week are now becoming enthusiastic over them when they actually realize the possibilities of this natural ceior process. The subjects in Kine-macolor today are of a different namacolor today are of a different nn-ture than formerly and are of the kind the past month. They have destroyed that many people were accustomed to. The two-reel feature is a Western en-titled The Call of the Blood and is a thrilling Indian and military film with many gripping scenes. This is the first Indian picture ever taken in nat-ural colors and the vivid colors of the warpaint and feather headdresses are accurately shown. To the many patrons who do not understand how the films can show all nature's colors, the films themselves not being colored at all, the management offers to show how it is done, and inspection of the machine is invited, when the process will be explained so anyone can under-

There are three pleasing vaudeville numbers today and mostly on the comedy order. W. E. Browning is a dialect comedian who is out of the teams employed carting lumber from ordinary and his stories all told in his north woods to his storage yard their original dialect are all laughproducers. Ford & Hyde will present a rural comedy skit that is full of clean comedy, and George De Almi, the gold banjo boy, in a classy musical specialty, completes the bill.

Besides the two-reel feature mentioned above, there are two good comedies and the popular Fashion Review, showing kimonas.

AT THE DAVIS. Another Big Vaudeville Bill.

Notwithstanding the fact that the summer season is here, the crowds haven't diminshed in attendance at this cosy theatre, and that speaks for the standard of the different shows seen here. The last three days will he no exception and another bill is promised as good as any preceding it. The vandeville numbers are all of the highest standard and include Wyn & Sheldon, a team of clever entertainers who can sing well, wear good classy clothes and tell good clean jokes, An-other act that must not be forgotten is the Aerial La Rnes, who do a daring trapeze and ring act and feature wonderful feats of teeth strength, You have seen other aerial acts, but none of them can compare with this one.

Next we have Olympia Marwich, billed as a high class singer. Miss Marwich is the possessor of a beautiful voice and evening in the assembly hall of and knows how to use it to the best advantage. The other act is Johnson & Kew, who do a rural comedy musical act, and one that makes a hit everywhere they have played. The photo-plays are beaded by a two-reel fea-ture entitled A Black Conspiracy, a war drama of the south, by the famous K. B. company. The Keystone come-dies are A Little Hero and The Darktown Belle, both screams from start to Running Into Scalp. Hot and Itching. Scales Formed. Had to Cut Hair. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Two Weeks.

Somerville, N. J. - "My daughter's ringworm was quite obstinate. First a red spot appeared on her cheek and another just behind the ear, running salve, but it kept growing. I had to cut the hair from the ringworm that ran in the scalp. It must have been of two weeks' standing as it had grown to a good size, when I got my husband to get me a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed it with hot water and Cuticura Soap then applied the Cuticura Ointment. The first application benefited her. When my sample was used I saw it was not so large and angry. so I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a cake of Cuticura Soap and applied them three times a day. The constant use for four or five days checked its growth and in two weeks more she was entirely cured. Cuticura Soap and Ointment also cured my son in two weeks of a case of ringworm." (Signed) Mrs. A. E. Neville, Dec. 19, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. A single set is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Ka Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

THAT MEANS I WIN.

O! Those dark days when I have been without you,
When all the world seemed steeped in

When birds sang out their mournful reveilles at morning.
And my numbed limbs refused to bear Their call unto the fight.

O! Life, my love, stole from you all your sweetness, My soul was dead within a tomb of My heart longs only for more subcon-scious slumber. For then is all I crave of thee Reborn in dreams aright!—Clifford Greve, in June Nautilus.

A MOTHER'S BIRTHDAY. Lord Jesus, thou hast known A mother's love and tender care; And thou will hear. While for my own Mother most dear I make this birthday prayer.

Protect her life, I-pray,
Who gave the gift of life to me;
And may she know
From day to day,
The deepening glow
Of joy that comes from thee.

As once upon her breast Fearless and well content I lay. So let her heart On thee at rest, Feel fear depart

And trouble fade away. Ah, hold her by the hand.
As once her hand held mine;
And though she may
Not understand

Lead her in peace divina. I cannot pay my debt
For all the love that she has givent
But thou, love's Lord,
Wilt not forget Her due reward— Bless her in earth and heaven, —Henry Van Dyke.
